Features

Aneesa Muthana is an award-winning manufacturing leader with over three decades of experience as CEO and owner of Pioneer Service.

A keynote speaker, member of several boards, and contributor to Modern Machine Shop, Aneesa captivates her audience with authentic experiences, humility, and a touch of humor. Aneesa believes we all have the power to find that sense of belonging while helping others do the same.

Her fascinating story discards playing the victim, instead showing how hard work, integrity, and tenacity are the route to success and self-fulfillment.
